By signing below, my parents and I, understand that the money earned will only go to the payment of a church sponsored event of my choice. None of the money gained will be paid to me outright and I will not receive or ask for money from the individual requiring the job done. My parents and I understand that I am to be respectful of those offering me this opportunity and that should respect the tools and equipment they may own, or loan, to me for this "God Job." I also understand that neither the church or the person offering this opportunity are responsible for harm to myself done of my own accord, volition, or by accident.
